GIMBELS

Paris Surpassed Millinery

If one had the privilege of visit-ing Mme. Georgette's Salon, one might be shown only six or ten chapeaux — probably, only three at Reboux's, a half dozen at Louison's, and such small collections in all the famous ateliers in Paris. But never does one view them ensemble. That

La Grande Exposition of Millinery surpasses any display ever presented in Paris, for here one may inspect all the new modes in our commodious French Salon.

GIMBEL Chapeaux and Paquin Costumes

A most unusual tribute was paid to our Millinery last week—when nine
GIMBEL Chapeaux were Worn with Paquin Costumes—at the Ritz-Carlton. Reproductions of those hats will be made at $22 to $50—according to model.
